Our traditional houses

Six traditional houses in Koufonisi Stunning views, next to the port/town and near all the lovely beaches.

Interior

The view from the veranda/patio of each traditional house is stunning, as you can see west towards the port and east towards the beaches. You can enjoy both the sunrise and sunset.

The location is very quiet and our houses offer the best opportunity to relax and enjoy your holidays in this hidden gem of the Cyclades.

The Island

Koufonisia is a cluster of two islands, Kato (Lower) and Pano (Upper) Koufonisi that belongs to the complex of Small East Cyclades. Geographically, it is located on the southeast side of Naxos and on the west side of Amorgos. Koufonisia also include the tiny, uninhabited island of Keros which is a protected archaeological site from which a good number of ancient Cycladic art has been excavated in the 20th century.

"A perfect holiday home."

Island hopping, Small Cyclades

The Small Cyclades are a sprinkling of 32 tiny islands near Naxos. Come in June and you'll see the islands at their sleepy best. Donoussa, Pano Koufonissi, Schinoussa and Iraklia are the most accessible, with ferry connections from Piraeus and Naxos. Koufonissi is the 'liveliest' and boasts some of the best beaches. Accommodation tends to consist of simple pensions and self-catering studios, places like Michalis Little Houses on Koufonissi (from €45 for a studio for two).
